SPECIAL AWARDS

LORRAINE COOK MEMORIAL TROPHY

*Lorraine Cook was a member of Illawarra Archers who died after an illness.
This trophy is awarded to the most improved archer regardless of age.
Clubs are asked to nominate archers according to set criteria on the "Deed of Gift".
This trophy was first presented in 1989.*

This trophy is intended to be awarded to the "Most improved archer". Clubs are required to submit details on the archer's discipline, rating @ 1st January 2023 to 31st December 2023 including a brief history on the individuals progress. Nominees must have competed in not less than 5 events above club level. All tournament scores are cross checked by Archery NSW Recorder.	Emily Griffiths Penrith City Archers

VETERAN OF THE YEAR (JANET WILKS MEMORIAL TROPHY)

*Janet Wilks was a member of Ku-ring-gai Bowmen.
Legend had it that she loved to shoot clout. Janet worked as a nurse at Royal North Shore Hospital. The trophy is awarded to the Veteran of the Year and was first presented in 1994 by her family shortly after she passed away.*

Is awarded on the "Annual Performance Awards" point system, excluding National Championships, which allocates points based on placings gained at State & Club tournaments on the 2023 Tournament Calendar where medals are handed out for divisional awards.	Craig Williams Ku-Ring-Gai Bowmen

ANDY FIRTH PERPETUAL TROPHY

Andy Firth was a proud Yorkshireman and member of Sydney Bowmen. He was a keen longbow shooter and competed in several ANSW tournaments at both club and state level. At the 2009 World Masters Games in Sydney, he earned one gold and four silver medals. Andy had a great love of Traditional archery and attended most events at Wisemans' Ferry. He was also a master fletcher, making some truly beautiful arrows - including one set which had fletches representing his name in barcode. Some examples of his work have been incorporated into the Andy Firth trophy. Andy passed away in 2015

Trophy is awarded to the highest combined aggregate scores shot at the State Indoor / Field / Target & Clout throughout the year in any age group or gender competing in the longbow division. If an archer shoots in more than one division in an event, then only the highest single score from that event will be used.	Craig Williams Ku-Ring-Gai Bowmen

Trans- Tasman Archery Championship April 2023

Australia and New Zealand selects a junior team of archers to compete against each other for the Trans-Tasman Trophy every two years.

This friendly event is designed for youth archers without international experience.

The competition takes place in New Zealand or Australia on a rotating basis.

This year, it was held in Adelaide, South Australia for 5 days over the April school holidays, with individual target results as follows:
 Divn: CU16F - Holly Parker (CA) Silver, Emily Griffiths (PCA) Bronze
 Divn: RU16F - Maja Kecskes (WAR), Gold, Tara Choo (SOPA) Bronze
 Divn: CU18M – David Simcock (CA) 5th
 Divn: RU18M – Lachlan Lee (SOPA) Silver & Brendan Tse (SOPA) 4th
 Divn: CU21M – Mitchell Campbell (SOPA) Silver & Alban Thornycroft (NOR) 4th

After the target competition, the event continued for three more days of matchplay - contested individually, in teams of two and teams of three.

While we were competing in both individual and team events, we were gaining points toward the Trans-Tasman Trophy.

On the last day of the event the Trophy was awarded to the team with the most points at the presentation dinner, there was no happy ending to this story for the Australian Team. Next day the Trophy travelled back to New Zealand waiting another two years for another Australian Team to win it back.

World Archery Oceania Archery Championship April 2023 – Adelaide

Youth Spirit Event

The Inaugural ArcheryNSW Youth Series held in 2023 consisted of 4 events.
Two target events, a field and clout event. The series was designed to encourage participation by our youth archers and to have events specifically for youths at low cost of entry fees.

The events consisted of:

The Armidale Youth Spirit Event (3-day event, Day 1 being a development day, day 2 and 3 being 24 target marked field).

Coast Archers Youth Challenge consisting of all Canberra Rounds & / Kidbow always a popular event with a Newcastle Round, with Alban Thornycroft / Alyssa Mollema & David Simcock shooting 900 out of 900.

Finishing off with the Hawkeye Youth Clout hosted by Penrith City Archers.

At these events ArcheryNSW provided each athlete with commemorative pins, that they can use at future events to swap.

The trophies were handcrafted by Simon Zablotsky, a member of Westlakes and a skilled master craftsman. The trophies were carved from Australia Blackwood, from a tree hand selected to make the judicial benches for the Supreme Court in Sydney.

The winners for 2023 are:

Recurve

- 1st – Maja Kecskes (Warringah Archers)
- 2nd – Julia Verzosa (Warringah Archers)
- 3rd - Oliver Robison (Warringah Archers)
